PROGRAM LESSON 2 · 90 MINUTES · SCRIPT FOR PRACTICE

Lesson 2: Story Pages

Students create their first 3 story pages.

Goal by the end of this lesson: 3 story pages · 3 total pages

Practice tip: read each line aloud three times. Tick a box each time you practice: ☐ ☐ ☐

Welcome

1	Welcome, Young Authors!
2	Today is a very exciting day, because today we begin creating the first story pages of your book.
3	Raise your hand if your story is completed.
4	Wonderful. If you need more time to finish your Mini Book, you can finish it later.
5	Let's take three minutes to get our creators' minds ready.

Young Author Meditation

1	Sit comfortably.
2	Close your eyes if you would like.
3	Take a slow breath in.
4	And slowly breathe out.
5	Imagine opening a magical door.
6	Behind the door is your story.
7	Who is there?
8	What do they look like?
9	What adventure is waiting for them?
10	Take one more deep breath.
11	When you are ready, open your eyes.
12	Today we begin bringing that story to life.

© 2026 Tiny Star. Confidential Teaching Material. Not for Redistribution.

Teacher Lecture: Share and Give Feedback

1	Today two authors will share their stories, and we will practice giving feedback.
2	When you share, you ask three questions.
3	Do you like my story? Why?
4	Is there anything you don't like?
5	What is one suggestion to make my story better?
6	And when you finish, you always say: Thank you for your feedback.

Teacher Lecture: How to Create the Story Pages

1	Now we will create your first story pages.
2	One: write your words in pencil first.
3	Two: when you finish, raise your hand and wait for me to check your work.
4	Three: after I approve your writing, carefully trace over the words with a marker.
5	Four: do not use your marker until your writing has been checked.
6	Keep your drawing and writing away from the edges of the page, so nothing gets cut off when we print your book.
7	Remember to add the page number, and keep it away from the edge too.

Creating in Silence

1	Now we're going to play a game called Creating in Silence.
2	For the next ten minutes, our classroom will be completely quiet so everyone can focus on their own ideas.
3	Remember: no talking.
4	If you have a question, write it on your note sheet, then quietly raise your hand. I'll come help you.
5	Take a deep breath, and let the silence help your imagination. Ready? Let's begin!

© 2026 Tiny Star. Confidential Teaching Material. Not for Redistribution.

Reflection

1	Raise your hand if you finished three story pages today.
2	Let's give ourselves a round of applause. Authors, thank you for your hard work today!
3	Next week we will create our first special page: the Dedication Page. Talk with your family or a good friend about who your book will be dedicated to.

Phone call to a parent (when a student is behind)

1	Hi, is this [Parent's Name]? This is [Your Name], [Student]'s Tiny Star teacher. Do you have two minutes?
2	First, I want to tell you something great: [one specific positive from today].
3	This week, every young author is working on story pages 1, 2 and 3. [Student] has finished [what is done], and still needs [what is left].
4	In class, I [support you gave]. At home, the most helpful thing is [one simple step].
5	Does that sound doable this week? Is there anything that makes it hard for [Student] right now?
6	Thank you so much. I'm also sending a short email with the details. See you next week!

Text message to a parent

Hi [Parent's Name], this is [Your Name], [Student]'s Tiny Star teacher. [Student] did great work today! This week's goal is 3 story pages, and [he/she] still needs to finish [what's left]. I just emailed you a few simple tips. Could you help [him/her] finish before Lesson 3? Thank you!

© 2026 Tiny Star. Confidential Teaching Material. Not for Redistribution.