PROGRAM LESSON 5 · 90 MINUTES · SCRIPT FOR PRACTICE

Lesson 5: The Front Cover

Students create the front cover and 3 more story pages.

Goal by the end of this lesson: 12 story pages · 15 total pages

Practice tip: read each line aloud three times. Tick a box each time you practice: ☐ ☐ ☐

Welcome

1	Welcome, Young Authors!
2	Today is a very exciting day! You will make the front cover of your book. This is the page readers see first, even on Amazon.
3	Now, let's take three minutes to get our creators' minds ready.

Young Author Meditation

1	Sit comfortably.
2	Close your eyes if you would like.
3	Take a slow breath in.
4	And slowly breathe out.
5	Imagine opening a magical door.
6	Behind the door is your story.
7	Who is there?
8	What do they look like?
9	What adventure is waiting for them?
10	Take one more deep breath.
11	When you are ready, open your eyes.
12	Today we begin bringing that story to life.

© 2026 Tiny Star. Confidential Teaching Material. Not for Redistribution.

Teacher Lecture: the Front Cover

1	Now it's time to create your Front Cover!
2	This is the page readers will see on Amazon. It tells everyone what your book is about and who created it.
3	On this page, you will include: the series name, your book title, your full name, your main characters, and a background design with color.
4	Do not write a page number on the cover.
5	After you write and draw, remove the frame and fully color the whole background.
6	Make your title big, clear and impressive! Let's create it.

Creating in Silence

1	Now we're going to play a game called Creating in Silence.
2	For the next ten minutes, our classroom will be completely quiet so everyone can focus on their own ideas.
3	Remember: no talking.
4	If you have a question, write it on your note sheet, then quietly raise your hand. I'll come help you.
5	Take a deep breath, and let the silence help your imagination. Ready? Let's begin!

Reflection

1	Raise your hand if you finished your front cover and three story pages today.
2	Let's give ourselves a round of applause. Authors, thank you for your hard work today!
3	Next week we will create our proudest page: the About the Author page. Talk with your family or a good friend about what you want readers to know about you.

© 2026 Tiny Star. Confidential Teaching Material. Not for Redistribution.

Phone call to a parent (when a student is behind)

1	Hi, is this [Parent's Name]? This is [Your Name], [Student]'s Tiny Star teacher. Do you have two minutes?
2	First, I want to tell you something great: [one specific positive from today].
3	This week, every young author is working on the front cover and story pages 10 to 12, which makes 15 pages in total. [Student] has finished [what is done], and still needs [what is left].
4	In class, I [support you gave]. At home, the most helpful thing is [one simple step].
5	Does that sound doable this week? Is there anything that makes it hard for [Student] right now?
6	Thank you so much. I'm also sending a short email with the details. See you next week!

Text message to a parent

Hi [Parent's Name], this is [Your Name], [Student]'s Tiny Star teacher. [Student] did great work today! This week's goal is the front cover + story pages 10–12 (15 pages total), and [he/she] still needs to finish [what's left]. I just emailed you a few simple tips. Could you help [him/her] finish before Lesson 6? Thank you!

© 2026 Tiny Star. Confidential Teaching Material. Not for Redistribution.