Welcome

1	Welcome, Young Authors!
2	Today is our final class, and a very special day! Today you are not just writers. You are published authors!
3	Now, let's take three minutes to get our creators' minds ready.

Young Author Meditation

1	Sit comfortably.
2	Close your eyes if you would like.
3	Take a slow breath in.
4	And slowly breathe out.
5	Imagine opening a magical door.
6	Behind the door is your story.
7	Who is there?
8	What do they look like?
9	What adventure is waiting for them?
10	Take one more deep breath.
11	When you are ready, open your eyes.
12	Today we begin bringing that story to life.

Teacher Lecture: the Public Speaking Chant

1	Every author knows how to share their book with others.
2	When you stand in front of an audience, people aren't just listening to your words. They are watching how you stand, smile and speak.

3	Let's learn the Tiny Star Author Public Speaking Chant!
4	F: Feet still! Stand with both feet on the floor. Don't rock or walk around.
5	H: Hands in place! Keep your hands relaxed by your sides, or gently hold your book.
6	B: Back straight! Stand tall and proud.
7	E: Eyes on the audience! Look at different people around the room.
8	S: Big smile! A smile helps your audience feel happy and connected to you.
9	V: Clear voice, and pause! Speak loudly and clearly. Don't rush.
10	Now let's say it together: Feet still, hands in place, back straight, eyes on the audience, big smile, clear voice. Pause, pause, pause!

Teacher Lecture: the 30-second pitch

1	Now you will introduce your book in thirty seconds.
2	One: introduce yourself. Hello, everyone! My name is blank, and I am the author of blank.
3	Two: introduce your book. My book is about blank. I wrote this story because blank.
4	Three: invite the audience. I hope you enjoy reading my book! You can find it on Amazon. Thank you!
5	Remember, you don't have to be perfect. You just need to confidently share your story.

Sample pitch (model it for students)

1	Hello, everyone! My name is Mia, and I am the author of The Penguin Who Really Traveled.
2	My book is about a little penguin who wants to see the world, but every boat leaves without him.
3	I wrote this story because I love penguins, and I want kids to know that you should never give up.
4	I hope you enjoy reading my book! You can find it on Amazon. Thank you!

Closing celebration

1	Congratulations, everyone! You did it! You have completed your very own book. You should be so proud of yourselves.
2	Here's what will happen next.
3	One: our Tiny Star publishing team will professionally format your book.
4	Two: we will email the formatted book to your parents for proofreading and final approval. Please remind your parents to check their email.
5	Three: after your family approves, your book will be published. This usually takes about ten days.
6	Four: about ten days after your book is published, you'll receive your very own author copy.
7	Let's give ourselves a big round of applause, because today we celebrate our newest Tiny Star Young Authors!
